forces and menalty result in turning the city over to Charles F. Hurphy." M'ANENY KEEPS "AN OPEN FRAME OF MIND."

Mr. McAneny is giving his anti-Tammany associates much anxiety. He refuses to make any definite statement as to what he would to in case Mayor Gaynor offered him a place on leaders that no offer has been made to him yet, and that he cannot answer all he will indicate about his intentions is that he is "in an open frame

It is to strengthen this open state in front of the City Hall, but a free of mind that the Fusion committee many meeting to nominate a Mayor by issued its pointed statement and that Mr. Mitchel made reference in his Inhidden and aubtle opposition of those forces behind the Gaynor camidacy by destroying its unity through pick-ing off candidates for indersement and so far there has been no authoritative in connection with the subway situa-line. While the public is confused by stamp of authority. He is still in pomany people regard the controversy as ended with the signing of the contracts be brought out in the campaign by the Fusion candidate in relation to what be calls "hidden and subtle influences." FINANCIAL INFLUENCES

There is a suspicion among Fusion leaders that financial influences are playing an important role in this car paign, seeking to diffeat the Mayor candidacy from the oeginning. Mayor Gaynor's entrance into the field as a third candidate has some backing which is not yet apparent. Similarly the

The Fusion champion is going to trike swift and straight at this traction business in politics. His earliest etterances will deal with subways and the part played therein by Tamman; and its candidates. Commenting on Mr. Mitchel's renunciation of the Independence League nomination and his declaration of the Tam-Hundred and Seven, said:

"Mr. Mitchel's statement that Tammany Hall is the real issue is absolutely sound and I am sure that he will make a splendid campaign on it. I "A person is hardly in a proper way am also sure that District-Attorney to decide anything before it is form-Waitman had full right under the cirhe has the same feeling about Tammany

The same is true of the other cand! dates. This is naturally a time of comtion will settle itself and it will be a was slient. He also declined to comclear question of whether the people Tammany Hall in its most cor plete form or not. The courage and decision with which Mr. Mitchel has made his choice cannot help giving him still more fully the confidence of the

HEARST MEN UPBET BY MITCHEL'S DEFECTION.

Hearst Independence League camp, be-cause Mr. Mitchel's declination leaves tious. their ticket without a head. James A. FINE Allen, one of its foremost leaders, said: "I am sorry that Mr. Mitchel has soon a committee of three empowered to fill vacancies, but in a case of such importance as this I think decision will not be left to so small a committee. We will call together our full city committee and figure out what is to be done.

"Tou may be assured of one thing: We are not going to lie down and quit. If our candidates do not agree with us and our principles we can easily find candidates who will. I have no idea whom we shall name for Mayor to fill Mr. Mitchel's place. There is pienty of che's letter was addressed, was asked whether Mr. Hearst would be the League's candidate.

"I do not know." was his reply.

WHO H

"Are you in favor of his candidacy?"
"I am not"

TRUCE TO BE DECLARED UNTIL AFTER LABOR DAY.

A temporary truce will be declared to-night in the political warfare Nearly all the candidates and leaders are seing out of town over Labor Day to let things simmer down a bit. Candidate Mitchel will be gone in the Adirondack woods for a week. Candidate Moan soes back to the White Mountains to finish the game of golf that has been rice interrupted by summons to town.

Board of Election Commissioners, said that the Independence League has un-til next Tuesday night within which to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Mitchel's withdrawal. Mr. Britt also stated that Mr. Mitchel's resignation has not been fled with the board.

After an opinion received to-day by President Britt from Attorney-General Carmedy, each party has until next Tuesday night within which to fill any vacancies on the county or city tickets.

GAYNOR WILL GET NOTIFICATION IN NOVEL MEETING.

per Gayner is going to have him-nate him for Mayor. It is to be the shouts of the multitude proclaiming the spontaneous uprising of the citisens de nanding that the modern Epictetus con tinue to serve them and rule them for four years more.

This brand new "stunt" in the municipal campaign has been arranged by Fire Commissioner Johnson, who is the oleverest manager on the political vaudeville circuit. The plan was arranged last night at a meeting of thirty-three the tender is made. Meanwhile, and small membership and others with by thousands of voters.

There have been some strange affairs sed its pointed statement and that popular acclamation promises to be a novelty that will attract enormous lunch hour. Especially will there be curiosity among the politicians to hear just how far the Mayor will himself to an independent candidacy. statement directly from him. Second into the campaign by Candidate Mitchel his political managers, but Mr. Gaynor technicalities of this subject and sition to make trade or side out if the complex situation requires it.

The serious object of the mass meeting and the beginning of actual work, there is to evolve a concrete organization out remains one paramount fact that will of the many scattered groups that are coming the Mayor in various parts of that they all get together under the emblem of the shovel, signifying subway digging, and unite their efforts. This rill be done and a committee of practical politicians will take over the management.

seeking to defeat the Mitchel M'ANENY HESITATES TO FOLLOW MITCHEL IN "FREE INDEPENDENCE."

Mr. McAneny appeared at his City Hall office at noon to-day and was shown Mr. Mitchel's statement. "Well," he asked, "what am I to say?"

"Will you accept a nomination on the Gaynor ticket, if it comes your way, loyalty to the Pusion movement?" he was asked.

may make a statement to-night. There man of the Fusion Committee of One will be a conference of the candidates on the Fusion ticket some time to-day. at which this matter will be gone over. "You have not come to a decision, is that It?"

"A person is hardly in a proper way ally before him for decision. I have cumstances to decide as he did and that not yet been tendered any nomina-Mr. McAneny was asked if the statement made by Mr. Mitchel to-day added difficulty to his decision regarding the Gaynor nomination. He smiled, but ment on the Collector's ideas of the son. It was already curtained with issues of Fusion in this campaign.

Mr. McAneny has his ticket for Lake "Get the engines!" she shouted to in New York to-day until some definite decision has been reached as to whether an endorsement is to come his way. Louis obeyed his mother and ran to Mr. McAneny is not convinced that the the corner, where he found Policeman Mayor is going to be a candidate for office. In the rapidly shifting line-ups the present Mayoralty race, Mr. McAneny has decided to be most cau-

INDEPENDENCE EVERYTHING, HE SAYS.

To friends who have urged him to At to do this. I think he has made a adopt the stand for principles assumed by Collector Mitchel, Mr. McAneny has her dress on fire, ran back through the The cataloguing of those souvenirs We nominated him as our candidate said that the present situation is one private hall to the kitchen. There are that is far above an individual's perturb that is far above an individual that the present of the control of the perturb that is far above an individual that the present of the control of the perturb that is far above an individual that the perturb that is far above an individual that the perturb that is far above an individual that the perturb that is far above an individual that the perturb that is far above an individual that the perturb that is far above an individual that the perturb that is far above an individual that the perturb that is far above an individual that the perturb that is far above an individual that the perturb that is far above an individual that the perturb that is far above an individual that the perturb that is far above an individual that the perturb that is far above an individual that the perturb that the pertur rejected McAneny and Prendergast besonal bent. There are grave affairs in fire escape landing and the other havothers beside himself the balance, Mr. McAneny told these ing nothing below it but the open his old age. tions were governed by principles rather well wishers, and while a man might rear court. than by the personality of candidates. well like to do as Mr. Mitchel has done, Mrs. Uria "It is difficult on this short notice to and display a fine independence, Mr. to the fire escape, but instead went to lay exactly what we shall do. We have McAneny believes that to disregard the the other window. mactly what we shall do. We have McAneny believes that to disregard the mmittee of three empowered to fill Gaynor endorsement would seriously les-

WHO HASN'T WRITTEN TO ME? ROOSEVELT ASKS REPORTERS

Col. Roosevelt refused to say a word on the political situation when interview in the Outlook office to-day. "I am a private citizen of Nassau County and I have no right to interfere with and disturb the local situation." he remarked. Questioned as to whether ex-Alderman Call will stay on his country place at Henry A. Smith had sent him a letter ground. Mackrell went back into the on this charge.

East Hampton. District-Attorney Whit- protesting against the action of the building and lowered the ladder of the "I suggest the Tammany-Moose element in designating Jesse Fuller Jr. for the position of Coun-Mayor Gaynor will remain at St. James, ty Judge in Norman S. Dike's place as two men.

L. L. All the party leaders are getting thite result of a deal formulated by Timothy L. Woodruff, Col. Roosevelt threw up his hands and declared: "If there is up his hands and declared: "If there is One or two parting blasts will be any politician who has not sent me a letter during the present campaign he seried for all time.

J. Gabriel Britt, President of the Honduras Accepts Peace Plan.

WASHINGTON, A	ug. 29Hondura
to-day became the fit	th country to ac cept the details of the	e Secretary Bryan
PORT OF NE	W YORK.
Oity of Savannah	Marseille Bavanna

OUTGOING STEAMSHIPS. OUTGOING STEAMSHIPS.
SAILED TO-DAY.
mis. Southamyton Matanase. Quantanamo. swips. Bartedos. Hamilton, Norfolk.
a. Ban Juan.
INCOMING STEAMSHIPS.

Cohesa, Nipe. DUE TO-DAY. Havens Monterey, Havens Maracelle, Le Gu

not believe in the candidate which o'clock No political boss like Murphy claude at the head. Third tickets are of Tainmany, no self-constituted comput in the field to weaken the Fusion mittee like the Fusion 107, is to designate the field to weaken the Fusion nate him for Mayor. It is to be the WIFE PLUNGES TO DEATH

Hipolite Uriarte Trapped Among Treasured Mementoes of Long Service-Aged Woman Loses Life After Vain Attempt to Rescue.

Thousands of souvenirs, many of paper, books, pictures, banquet programmes and the like, collected during fifty years in the Spanish consula service, and stacked high in every room in Hipolito Urlarte's fourth floor apartment at No. 468 Central Park West, became a bonfire when a match was dropped on a pile early to-day.

The aged collector was trapped by the darting flames in his treasured L. Dupuis, a short time before and from souvenirs and burned to death. His wife, Marie Louise Uriarte, her clothing afire, either jumped or fell from a kitchen window and was grocery shop and demanded that he killed.

Nothing was known as yet of the alarm, which brought Chief Kenion Firemen drove out three or four per her third floor apartment, despite the firemen, rescued the manuscript of a one-act play, "La Corceste," which WINDOW.

Not until the fire had been extinsuished was the body of Mr. Uriarte found. He lay across a window sill in elde of the building, his body an un-

Neighbors threw open their homes to

F. S. Goodwin, a well-known real estate operator, who has a private house ad-

The Memorial Hospital, in which there are 18 patients, is at Central Park West and One Hundred and Sixth street, one block from the fire. Beveral engines attached their lines to plugs beside the nospital, beiching smoke into

The doctors and nurses were all aroused by the night superintendent and windows and assuring the patients that

Louis Uriarte, who was almost pros-

"My father was eighty-two years old.

He entered the Spanish consular service as a young man and rettred only a few he was Consul-General to Canada He ment in New York City. I do not recall just now in what capacity. I am too broken in mind to think clearly."

Neighbors said the old man was universally beloved, especially by children.

He was passionately devoted to his collection of souvenirs and delighted

(Continued from First Page.)

apher had gone to Montreal and the opposing lawyers could not agree on a substitute. There were many of them, or nearly all of Thaw's staff appeared

L. T. Marchall was there to represent Promier Borden; Firmin Campbell acted for the immigration authorities; Louis

St. Laurent appeared for Thompson and supporting him were Charles D. White

Col. Harry Fraser and W. K. McKeown

Samuel W. Jacobs, Jerome and Franklin Kennedy, represented New York, the new charge against Thompson and

"I suggest that the hearing be postponed to a date that is satisfactory to Your Worship," said Mr. McKeown, "and then both charges can be heard arrangement and then Mr. McKeewn launched into a long argument to have of Thaw's legal staff.

went throughout the institution old his bedroom, which opens on the son recognizable charred hulk.

the windows.

mained calm.

deals with the French revolution.

Like a blasing rocket, her body de- of the Uriarte apartment whipped down scribed an arc in its descent, illuminat- the stairs and drove them back at the ing the rear court, striking terror into the other tenants, men, women and the other tenants, men, women fate of old Mr. Uriarte.

As soon as Battalion Chief "Big Bill"

Clark arrived he sent in a second to burn until it had been reduced to some who remained in the building, ashes and her body was only a charred among them Mms. Pilar Morin, a waudeville actress and wife of Andrew

Spanish Consul, returned home abou I o'clock. His father was still awake and busy, the stub of a cigar in his souvenirs, which had been collected in BODY OF EX-CONSUL FOUND AT ALL ROOMS PILED HIGH WITH

There are seven rooms in the apar ment. In the front and back parlors the codection of odds and ends to piled almost to the ceiling, leaving only three narrow sisles through which one on view of Mr Mitchel's avowal of pass. In the hall running through the yalty to the Fusion movement?" he apartment, in the bedrooms, in the dining room, even in the bathroom, every available inch of space was given over to stacks of souvenirs.

Louis bade his father good-night and and servants prepared coffee and sandfather go into the bathroom, presum night work. There was the sound of a match scratched and then the sound of running water at the basin. The next pain. It is supposed he had dropped the match carelessly onto a pile of sou-venirs in the bathroom and that the arte as he cent over the basin.

Louis and his mother started simul-taneously to aid Mm. Mrs. Uriarte reached the bathroom door ahead of her

George but it is likely he will remain Louis as she darted into the bathroom There is no telephone in the apart-ment and no elevator in the building. The commotion in the Uriarte apart tenants. A few went down the stairs

Others gathered on the fire escape. DAZED WOMAN IN FLAMES GO WRONG WINDOW.

Mrs. Uriarte probably intended to go whom we shall name for Mayor to fill in the Committee of One Hundred and Seventh street. The limit before primary day, and we shall move deliberately."

William J. Taylor, to whom Mr. Mittely on the assumption that the Mayor tirely on the assumption that the Mayor that gate into the rear court. They passed Mrs. Uriarte's body and broke open a door into the apartment house cellar. West's hand was badly Mackrell went through the basement, but found his way barred by a looked door leading to the main floor. He broke that down and entered the first burt in forcing the door and he went that floor had left their door open and Mackroll dashed through to a rear win-Persons fleeing from an apartment on dow, where he lowered the drop ladder of the fire-escape. West, despite his in-jured hand, assisted him from the who said the defense was unprepared other rear fire-escape. Women with children in their arms who were coming down blessed these SAVES THE LIVES OF WOMEN Magistrate Mulvens consented to this AND CHILDREN.

Jacob Adler, who occupies the apartment across the hall from the Uriartes. Mulvens said he with Adler were his two children, one ball on both cases. four years old and one seven, and a man who rooms in the Adler apartment. The fames bursting from the open Uriarte door had blocked their

Thompson was bailed out this afternoon. He said he was overjoyed to be at liberty but declined to say a word and my conecience is clear.

"I won't jump my ball here. I couldn't return to Times Square, and the best thing I can do is to stand trial and take what medicine they give me. MYSTERIOUS AUTO ON BRIBERY ERRAND.

SAYS THAW LAWYER

al From a Staff Correct legal camp of Harry Thaw was thrown into a flurry this afternoon by the news that a fast automobile had appeared in Coatleook, the home of Magistrate A. it had alighted three etrangers, who hunted up the Magistrate in his little return at once with them to Sherbrod to quash the warrant on which he held Thew last week. Such a move had been expected by Thaw's advisers, but they were satisfied that Duplus would etick to his stances would be reopen Thaw's case The news from Costicook was terrileff, who telephoned it, is one of the Thaw lawyers.

Dr. Shurtleff said that the little gro cer-Magistrate had been threatened de Matto. She returned, however, to with all sorts of punishment if he did not do as the strangers wished after he had steadfastly resisted several efhe had no fear that Dupuis would succumb either to threats or to bribes, caught attempting to bribe he would arrest them. Nevertheless, he warned strange car.

one here can imagine. Dr. Shurtleff knows every one of the New York have recognized any of them. The Immigration authorities are as anxious to him fall into the Dominions hands, but should not have recognized any such officials if they were concerned in the attempt.

While some who heard it take Dr Shurtleff's news seriously, others think case has led him into placing alarming conclusions on a perfectly innocengroup of tourists.

POLICE BEGIN CAMPAIGN AGAINST MARKET THIEVES

Two Gangsters Arraigned in Court After Vicious Fight With Detectives.

Joseph Rooney and Thomas Harris each eighteen years old members of the 'Hudson Dusters" Gang, were araigned in Jefferson Market Police Court today by Detectives Raftie, Slevin and Campbell, charged with larceny, and their arraignment was the opening Dusters." The activity of the police post. Members of the Hudson Dusters, familiar with the ways of patrolmen, have been waiting until the hour when ing right and left and slugging market men and gardeners.

In response to the appeal of the mar-ketmen, Commissioner Waldo sent Raf-tis, Campbell and Slevin to the Gansevoort neighborhood early to-day. The detectives were dressed as drivers. Soon after 6 o'clock, they caught Harris and Rooney stealing a bag of potatoes from the wagon of Tony Delucca. a Jersey farmer. Harris not only aided in stealing the potatoes, but threatened Delucca with a knife. Both the youths fought victously when the detectives arrested Harris was once convicted of carrying a loaded revolver, and is now under arole on a charge of grand larceny.

GAYNOR WON'T ACCEPT NOMINATION TO BENCH: HE WILL RUN FOR MAYOR.

Robert Adamson, Secretary to the Mayor, to-day denied the report that Mayor Gaynor may accept the Prothe Court of Appeals, and thus side-Mayor. "The Mayor is in the race to stay."

said Mr. Adamson positively. 'There is no doubt about it. He will not accept After the crowd on fire escapes had got to the ground Mackrell heard cries Thompson admitted to ball. Magistrate a nomination for Chief Justice of the for help from the fourth floor. He went Mulvens recalled to him that he and Court of Appeals of the Progressive Court of Appeals of on the fourth floor landing he found parently, that ball had been set at $500 party, or of any other party. Those stories are being circulated to try and Jacob Adler, who occupies the apart for Thompson last week. Magistrate discredit the Mayor. His opponents the hall from the Uriartes. Mulvena said he would continue this realise that he is the real independent candidate and they of course, will do everything they can to hurt his canvas The Mitchel supporters know that with pen Urlarte door had blocked their tioners to his lawyer, and sir.

Adler, apparently, was about to east one of the children to the ground. He was in a state of terror. Mackrell selzed the child and the Adler roomer took the other. They were followed down the fire escape by Adler.

Lawrence Beautis of No. 5 West One lawrence Beautis of No. 5 West One liumched at a table next to that occupied by Jerome and District-Attorney Conger and Sheriff Hornbeck of Dutchess County.

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius (Sont.) Poet.)

Burglars Rob Essayor.

(From the St. Imatius street, Brooklyn, who were passing, and Sheriff Hornbeck of Dutchess and two chauffeurs from a neighboring County.

The Sheriff had in his poshet a war-building. Firs apouting from the door rant for the arrest of Thompson Sa a charge of conspiring to liberate Thaw, but it has no weight in Canada, and Thompson smiled in his security. The chauffeur's chief concern is that he cannot, with the warrant hanging over him, return to New York State. "But as for squealing," he said, "I wouldn't say a word to hurt Thaw's case for a million dollars cash. I think he is sane and I want to see him go IN EXODUS FROM MEXICO

Trains Take Hundreds to City. Where Envoy Lind Remains, in Touch With U.S. Warships in Port There-Wilson Assailed.

Several hundred Americans arrived here to-day from Mexico City and elseseeking passage to the United States and others expecting to remain here. thinking the port safe enough in the event of trouble. The steamer Morro Castle, which lef last night, was crowded with American refugees.

John Lind, special envoy, to-day decided to make his headquarters here Hable communication with Washington than when in Mexico City.

When President Huerta's latest note expressing a desire for renewed negotiations and the possible acceptance o the American proposals were brough here by a messenger, Lind undertook to conduct further negotiations from Vera Cruz unless ordered by Washington to return to Mexico City, prefer ing direct cables and wireless communication with the United States, rather than land wires and Mexican operators. The crowds of Americans flocking here they could hourd at short notice the place should an emergency arise. En-WILSON IS HELPING HUERTA

NEWSPAPERS CLAIM.

Key West, said that he and Lind re-garded Huerta's final acceptance as a erta to cause an immediate cessation trip to Washington, carrying as he does, the originals of the Mexican notes to conditions, would do much to clarify the cess, tmosphere. held so long as he or any on MEXICO CITY, Aug. 29.—President senting him remains in power chances of Huerta becoming the next dailles of the Mexican capital. El

"If the election of Victoriano Huerta in the coming campaign has been in doubt the latest diplomatic developments and the unforeseen attitude of President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan have made it certain."

A sulogy of Provisional President Huerta follows, and the article con-"President Wilson has taken it upor himself to crystalize the popularity of President Huerta until he has become the incarnation of national dignity and "John Lind thought to come, to see In the first encounter the Colossus of tisconcerted. In the second encounter shouted for help.

are few policemen on the streets until iano Huerta because the President of the next platoon reports for duty on the United States of America attempts foolishly to exclude him from the contest. "As for the revolutionists' candidates, police protection was slack and de-they may be considered defeated in scending in force on the markets, loot-advance precisely for the reason that they may be considered defeated in they appear as the candidates of the White House."

The article concludes by likening

Federico Gamboa to David, conquering the Goliath of American diplomacy. LIND'S CHANGE OF PLANS PUZ. ZLES WASHINGTON. El Pais publishes an editorial article along similar lines declaring that President Wilson has not only launched the candidacy of Huerta, but advanced it, since should he be proposed he could find no better argument in his favor than the "odium of a Yankee President." El Independiente under the caption of "Our First Victory," says that Mexdignified responses, the sound masoning and the just grounds of Mexican diplomacy.

The Imperial citing the fact that the negotiations have not terminated does not believe it opportune to attempt to analyze the situation. It counsels tranquility, only approving and ap-plauding the course thus far taken by the Mexican chancellery. WASHINGTON, Aug. 29 .- Administration officials were puzzled to-day by news despatches saying that John Lind had reconsidered his plans to so to Mexico City and would remain in Vera Crus several days. While it has been left entirely to Mr. Lind's discretion to derstanding had been from official mes-

Huerta Government. No word was received from Mr. Lind to-day indicating any change in plan. Secretary Bryan and President Wilson had an early conference and awaited further despatches. The President arranged to leave for Cornish, N. H., late to-day unless developments required his presence in Washington. Secretary Bryan left Washington this sages received yesterday that he would afternoon to deliver two lectures in

HUERTA CAN'T STOP WAR, SAYS REBEL GENERAL.

EAGLE PASS, Tex., Aug. 29.-General satisfaction with President Wilson's Mexican message was expressed to-day in a statement by Gen. Jesus Carranza. acting head of the Constitutionalists, at their provisional capital, Piedras Negras. He spoke in the absence of his brother. Gov. Carranza, who is fighting at Tor-Constitutionalists, Gen. Carranza said.

appreciate the fairness of the message. He predicted, however, that war would continue because Huerta would be unable to comply with American suggestions and that Huerta would have to William Bayard Hale, who yesterday be "driven from the country" before salled for Washington, via Hayana and peace could be restored. "It is not within the power of Hu-ong way off, but that they have not of hostilities, as asked for by Presiong way off, but that they have not dent Wilson, as he has no means to enhe has really been trying to do for the Lind and his first-hand impressions of past six months, but without suc-Neither could an election be held so long as he or any one repre-

President Huerta greatly increases the until there is absolute peace throughout the republic, and there cannot be peace until Huerts and his adherents are at least two of the leading Spanish driven completely from power and from Diario, in an editorial article comment- will there be an election for President ing on the diplomatic exchanges, says The Constitutionalists have pledged themselves to abide by the result of such an election, and they will keep

GRAPPLES BOY BURGLAR.

Caretaker Chases Youth Who Go Nothing but His Liberty.

Alfred Price, caretaker for the home of Marshall Ward, a broker at No. 33 West Forty-fourth street, returned to the place after marketing to-day to be confronted in the hall with a tall, muscular young man, apparently under and to conquer," but Felerico Gamboa twenty, whose cap was pulled down was able to counter and dominate him. over his eyes. The boy tried to dart past Price, who grappled with him, and the North was turned from its course they wrestled on the floor while Price was inspired by a petition forwarded to it abandoned the field.

Commisioner Waldo yesterday signed by 300 market men asking for better police protection in West Washington and Gansevoort Markets between 6 o'clock and 7 o'clock A. M.

Platoon changes are made at 8 o'clock in the morning and from that hour, when the night platoon retires, there can soul the will not you for Victor.

West Washington and Huerts. All ambitions, all rancor and all intrigues have dissolved in front of the diplomatic triumph which we have in the morning and from that hour, when the night platoon retires, there can soul the gill not you for Victor.

WO

"BOSS" ROGER SULLIVAN GETS ROUSING WELCOME

Nearly Every Officer of the State of Illinois on Pier to Meet the Leader.

Roger C. Sullivan, the "Boss" of Blinois, came back to-day on the Lusttania, from his trip abroad, accompanied by his wife. All state business in Illinois is practically suspended for three days, while the "boss" is being escorted home The Attorney-General of the State, she Comptroller, Auditor, Treasurer, Secre ake an early train to-day for Mexico tary, in fact, every state office was rep-Ity to resume negotiations with the resented on the revenue cutter or at the pier to welcome "Boss" Sullivan, Judges of the Supreme Court, Congressmen, County Commissioners were on fifty-one in all, and what they will do to Chicago, will be something wonderful The Governor is in Denver on business. or he would have been on the tug.

There are no two Governors in Illinois kind of an administration. He is not only leader in Chicago politics; he is the hors of the whole state The many friends of the great chies

City, and later to Springfield

Astoria to-morrow night, and on Sunday

Keeping its friends, it only ad-

White Rose Coffee, Rich and Pure

Does Your Roof Leak?

RU-BER-OID Roofing

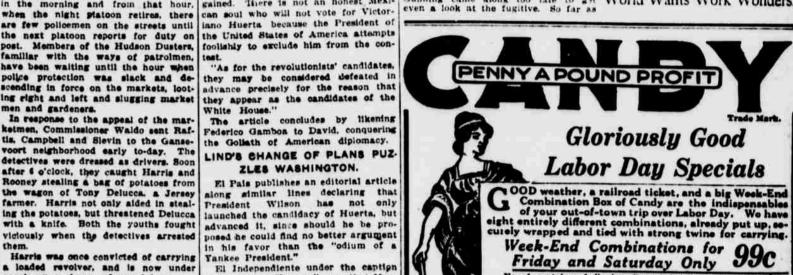

over the old one and guarantee perfect satisfaction.

THE STANDARD PAINT CO.. 100 William Street, New York Phone John 144.

Always Increasing Sales Attest Your Satisfaction with

Eddys deily English At Grocers and Delicatessen Stores, 10c

to get World Wants Work Wonders.

No. 4 contains: 1 lb. box Peanut Brittle, 1 lb. box Budelai Assorted Chorolates, Ve-lb. box Italian style Cream Chocolates, Ve-lb. box Milk Chorolate Covered Maraschino Cherries, 1-lb. box Sam-Blas Coronnut Elsses, 1 box Midget bilek Candy. Special for Friday, Aug. 29
ANNORTED FRUIT DISCS—Sugary, checker shaped candles, highly flavored with the pure juices of choice, fresh fruits, in splendid variety. They must in the nouth.

Special for Sat., Aug. 30 CHOCOLATE COVERED FRUIT PUDDING The same variety of fruits used in the good eld-time English Plum Pudding, inclored in a shell of rich chocolate. FOUND BOX

10c SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

CHOCOLATE COVERED
CREAM PEPPERMINTS—
Aromatic discs of rich, velvely
Sugar Cream, richly flavored with flacat Oil of Peppermint and covered with 19C
POUND BOX

BON BONS and CHOCOLATES of BON BONS and CHOCC ATES in features for Labor Day. A select assortment of Class A Chocolates of Bon Bons and Chocolates, attractively put up in artistic bases, bearing a perfect reproduction of old 25C Glory. A traiv saprepriate 25C FRIDAY AND SATURDAY SUGGESTIONS FOR

MILE CHOCOLATE COVERED MARASCHINO CHERRIES — This delightful fruit in its fullest perfection plunged in rich Cream and covered generously with our Celebrated Fremium Milk Chocolate. If you love Maraschino Cherries this little treasure chest will delight you. POUND BOX super Bon Bons and Chocolates or Ala. Chocolates—These excellent sweets find their way into hundreds of families that could well afford to pay more for their candles, but who have found by actual experience that naving 40c in excess of our price gets them as more in either quality or quantity. It isn't a maller of economy allogether, but good ludgment and discrimination.

POUND BOX

Park Row, Cartlandt, 128th Street er. Brooklyn Stores onen every ovening 11 o'clock. All our stores onen Saturday evenings until 11 o'clock. 54 BARCLAY STREET
Carner West Broadway
29 CORTLANDT ST.
Carner Church Street
Park Row and Nasanu St.
At City Hall Park
460 BECOME ST.
Carner Count Street
Carner Count Carner Count Carner Count C 206 BROADWAY Controlled Street
147 NASSAU STREET
Between Backman & Surver Sta
266 W. 126th STREET
Just East of Eighth Avenue
23 W. 24th STREET
materials of State Avenue